

Get your party started with Showbolt

Finding that extra 'something' to elevate your event that provides unique, shareable memories and makes your guests feel like Hollywood royalty is no easy task. But it's not impossible.

It's time to introduce the Showbolt.

Showbolt is an interactive camera robot that has been making waves at the biggest A-list events in the world, including the Oscars, TV Baftas and the Grammy Awards, and is set to become the hottest attraction at the most exclusive events and weddings of the season.

Give your guests the red-carpet experience as they strut and pose with the Showbolt and into your reception. Taking the photo booth to the next level with fast, sweeping camera moves and cool slow-motion action, it gives everyone's best moves the full music video treatment.

You'll be the talk of the town as your guests will look and feel like the A-list stars as they share their stunning video selfies. Interactive, original and fun, the Showbolt brings a touch of glamour and excitement to any event, creating lasting memories that will elevate your guests' experience.

But seeing is believing, so take a look at what it can do. Cocktails at the ready? Watch the Showbolt showreel here.

CEO Assaff Rawner said 'We're thrilled to be able to unveil the Showbolt. We believe that it will soon become the must-have attraction for every event, giving guests fun, unique and shareable video experiences. Showbolt creates an instant talking point and puts the host right at the forefront of entertainment and event innovation.'
